

Training Update

Update from Regional Head of Education - North Coast

It has been a busy first six months of the year for our region and I am looking forward to the end of this year being kinder to us in terms of the weather.

A big thank you for your understanding and patience during the catastrophic floods in March/April. Many in our office were flooded in or stranded (myself included). Thank you for supporting your registrars during this time too.

The GPT1/2 and PRRT1/2 registrars have had all their education delivered this term thanks to our dedicated medical educator team with make-up events in lieu of the floods. We have had outstanding exam results in the RACGP exam on the North Coast with two of our registrars topping the state for the written and clinical exam. Thanks to all the supervisors who assist with our mock OSCEs – without your help we would be unable to run them.

We have delivered two supervisor weekends so far this year in Ballina and Port Macquarie, with a third planned in Coffs Harbour in September. Thank you to all of you who travelled to attend and faired the bad weather for the Ballina workshop. As a fellow supervisor myself, I always value the opportunity to brainstorm ideas with other supervisors and in my role as regional head it is important for me to understand the issues you may be experiencing with hosting your registrars and dealing with new processes, etc.

A reminder that direct observation and competency assessments are powerful teaching tools for registrars and that the competency assessments are remunerated for registrars throughout their training in general practice.

In addition, supervisor education events delivered by GP Synergy are remunerated and so I hope that some of you are making your way to GPTEC in Sydney or joining some of the webinars delivered, or will be joining us in Coffs Harbour in September.

Thank you to those of you who do Clinical Teaching Visits (CT) visits for us. For those of interested in becoming a visitor there will be a training morning on the Sunday of the Coffs Harbour workshop.

As a practice owner and GP supervisor myself I understand only too well the pressure that general practice is facing currently without the added layer of complexity of hosting a registrar. Your North Coast team is there to try and make the process and experience as painless as possible and we welcome your feedback at any time.

Finally, hearty congratulations to two of our North Coast supervisors who were awarded in the Queens Birthday honours recently – Dr John Moran from Murwillumbah and Dr John Kramer from Woolgoolga; very well deserved and we are very grateful to have you as a great asset for the training of our registrars on the North Coast.

Dr Rashmi Sharma | Regional Head of Education – North Coast

Have your say! Supervisor and practice manager surveys now open

We are inviting all supervisors and practice managers to participate in our annual feedback survey.

The survey will take approximately 10-15 minutes to complete and is anonymous. Please check your email for the survey link.

Please don't hesitate to contact Marketing and Communications Manager, Kate Froggatt on kate_froggatt@gpsynergy.com.au or 1300 477 963 if you have any queries.

Have you tried SupportGPT – the online in-practice teaching tool for supervisors and registrars?

SupportGPT is an online in-practice teaching resource for supervisors, and registrars in their first or second GP term. It is not mandatory for you to use this platform or alter your in-practice teaching unless you want to. However we encourage you to have a look around the site to explore the modules and features available and how they might assist you.

What's included in SupportGPT?

SupportGPT has many features:

1. Registrar modules: There are 16 modules that can be completed by registrars prior to an in-practice teaching session, and activities that can be completed during in-practice face-to-face teaching time with their supervisor.
2. Supervisor modules: There are currently four modules for supervisor's professional development and education. Combined, these modules form an Active Learning Module (ALM) that will be accredited with the RACGP and ACRRM for 40 Category 1 QI&CPD points and the PDP equivalent.
3. Weekly in-practice teaching planner: This planner can be used in a flexible manner and may be used by a supervisor to guide in-practice weekly teaching sessions.
4. ResourceGPT: An index of over 1,300 clinical resources which are searchable and can be used in any order as problems present.

Who can access SupportGPT?

SupportGPT is only accessible by supervisors who have a registrar in their first or second GP term.

How can you access SupportGPT?

1. Login to GPRime2
2. Go to the 'Quick Links' tab in the top toolbar
3. Select 'SupportGPT'

How can you find out more about using SupportGPT?

1. View the SupportGPT flyer
2. View the 5-minute instructional video

Both resources are also available in GPRime2 under 'Forms, Documents and Links'. Just search 'SupportGPT'.

Examples of how to use SupportGPT

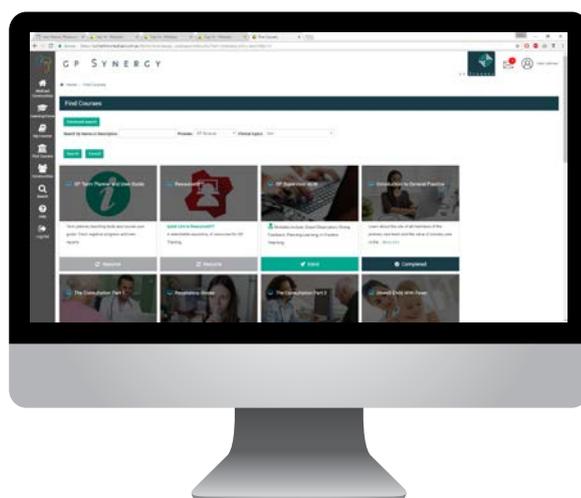

Supervisor Grant

Grant is an experienced supervisor in a large regional practice. His registrar, Jane, is starting her first term in GP practice. She has just been to her "Foundations" day release program and has spent some time with the practice manager learning about the practice and its systems. Grant asks Jane what she would like to learn during her term. Jane, being new, responds by saying "everything"! They agree that Jane should develop a learning plan, and she uses the Learning Needs Analysis to guide thinking about this. Grant and Jane decide that they will follow the suggested weekly activities in the GP Term Planner, and agree that they can review this and change the order at any time if Jane identifies a specific need.

Supervisor Karen

Karen is supervising Hung this term. Hung is in his second term in general practice training, prior to which he did many years working in ED. They discuss Hung's learning needs and identify that he is confident in many areas. They decide that Hung will review the modules on SupportGPT and only focus on those that meet his specific learning needs. They will also use their in-practice teaching time to focus on his clinical reasoning skills through random case analysis and case presentation.

Medicare provider number reminder

If you are training a GP registrar in a GP term in 2017.2 (Aug- Feb), please ensure they check the letter from Medicare advising them of their provider number approval.

Registrars should confirm that they been issued with a provider number with full billing rights before they commence billing patients. Registrars with refer and request rights will only be able to refer patients and request investigations for them, until a provider number with full billing rights is received.

Key dates

11 Sept - 3 Oct: Practices to update their training placement capacity for the first term of 2018 (2018.1).

25 Sept*: Week 8 competency assessment due for registrars in first or second GP terms

18 Oct: Practices notified of training placement caps.

23 Oct: Registrars can start applying to practices in their allocated grouping

*These dates are indicative only and may vary if a registrar is part-time or commenced a GP term after the first week of term.

Research: Participation request

Global Assessment Tools in (medical) Education (GATE)

Participants: Medical educators and GP supervisors

Methodology: Participation involves completion of up to six questionnaires over a six-month period, each questionnaire taking approximately 15-30 minutes to complete. All data will be de-identified.

Aims: The objective of this project is to define the factors which influence Global Assessments of general practice registrars by experienced General Practitioners (GPs) and Medical Educators (MEs). It is hoped that defining these factors and promoting this knowledge to those involved in undertaking Global Assessments throughout GP training will enhance the validity and reliability of this increasingly important selection and assessment tool.

Chief Investigator: This research project is being conducted through General Practice Training Queensland. The project is supported by the Royal Australian College of General Practitioners with funding from the Australian Government under the Australian General Practice Training Program.

The GATE Project Advisory Group: Dr Graham Emblen – Project leader (gemblen@gptq.qld.edu.au), Dr Rebecca Stewart – Project manager (rebecca@mededexperts.com.au), Joanne Fisher - Senior Research Officer: (jfisher@gptq.qld.edu.au), A/Prof Marie-Louise Dick, Dr Scott Preston, Dr Gerard Ingham, Dr Jane Smith.

To participate: If you are interested in participating, please review the Participant Information and Consent Form, available via the following link (GATE Consent form) which is followed by the initial questionnaire.

RACGP Foundation Grant success

Congratulations to Prof Parker Magin and Dr Anthea Dallas, both recipients of RACGP Foundation Grants!

Dr Dallas will examine GP registrars' and their supervisors' attitudes to, and experience of, the use of delayed antibiotic prescribing for acute respiratory tract infections through a qualitative study.

Prof Magin's grant is for the AusTAPER (Team Approach to Polypharmacy Evaluation and Reduction) pilot study for older general practice patients.

GP Synergy medical student scholarship recipient gets published

Congratulations to Belinda Watson on being lead author on a paper published in Australian Family Physician!

The paper is based on the study she undertook as a UNSW recipient of a GP Synergy Medical Student Scholarship in 2016. Scholarship recipients are supported by GP Synergy to participate in research projects and undertake a community GP placement. Belinda's study investigated older patients and general practice follow-up after an emergency department admission.

There are currently 18 students from universities across NSW and ACT participating in the program. For more information visit our website.

GP registrar swimming the English Channel

Dr Rachele Silver will be swimming solo from Dover, UK to Calais, France in August. She is using her swim across the English Channel to raise funds for an organisation close to her heart – Perinatal Anxiety and Depression Australia (PANDA). PANDA offers the only specialist national perinatal mental health telephone counselling service, as well as reducing stigma around perinatal anxiety and depression, and providing education services to health professionals and the wider community.

You can read more about her amazing feat here: <https://www.mycase.com.au/page/150414/rachele-swims-the-english-channel-for-perinatal-mental-health>

Looking for a laugh? GP the Musical is coming to Sydney in September

Created by GPs, Drs Gerard Ingham and Genevieve Yates, and directed by A/Prof Katrina Anderson, GP the Musical made its debut at the General Practice Education and Training Conference in 2012, before playing to sold-out shows at the Melbourne International Comedy Festival in 2013..

The highly popular musical will be hitting the stage again, this time in Sydney at the NIDA studios in September.

Ten GPs from around Australia are involved in the production which includes NSW GP supervisors Drs Linda Mann and Hester Wilson, as well as Regional Head of Education – South Eastern NSW, Dr Allison Miller, and GP Synergy Director of Registrar Education, Dr Anna Sallos.

“Being a part of this has been a great experience!” says Dr Sallos.

“Anyone who has sat in a doctor’s waiting room can relate to the play. If you want a good laugh and a night out with the family, come along!”

GP the Musical is showing at NIDA in Sydney from 14-17 September 2017. Bookings can be made from Ticketek.
