Brigadoon – The Ultimate Scottish Experience

Bundanoon has over the past 40 years gained the envious reputation throughout Australia as the Premier location for hosting the traditional Scottish Highland Games. Every year in April between 12-16,000 Australians, many not necessarily of Scottish descent make an annual pilgrimage to this outstanding event to enjoy and participate in the gathering known, as “Bundanoon is Brigadoon”.

Points of Interest

There are several good places to eat out in Bundanoon as well as a local hairdresser and beauty therapist. If you are after quaint places to visit there is a little museum (open weekends), nurseries and several picnic areas.

One of the great evening activities for visitors and locals is a trip down to glow worm glen. With a bit of care, you can ensure to see a great light show while minimising impact on these luminescent locals.

Although a short drive from Bundanoon, a trip to Fitzroy Falls is well worth a visit too and the Southern Highlands Vineyards are great to explore.

Morton National Park is one of NSW's largest parks, containing a considerable section of the Southern Highlands. Whether you are an experienced bushwalker looking for remote wilderness hiking, a novice mountain biker looking for a comfortable ride or a keen photographer looking for some scenic waterfalls to capture this enormous park has something for everyone.
